PREFACE

This manuscript is the product of a series of tape-recorded interviews conducted for the Oral History Program of Foundation for Iranian Studies by Mahnaz Afkhami with Prince Gholam Reza Pahlavi in London in April 11, 1990 and August 21, 1991.

Readers of this Oral History memoir should bear in mind that it is a transcript of the spoken word, and that the interviewer, narrator and editor sought to preserve the informal, conversational style that is inherent in such historical sources. Foundation for Iranian Studies is not responsible for the factual accuracy of the memoir, nor for the views expressed therein.

The manuscript may be read, quoted from and cited only by serious research scholars accredited for purposes of research by Foundation for Iranian Studies; and further, this memoir must be read in such place as is made available for purposes of research by Foundation for Iranian Studies. No reproduction of the memoir either in whole or in part may be made by microphoto, typewriter, photostat, or other device.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Prince Gholam Reza Pahlavi is a younger half-brother of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi. During his brother's reign he was active in the Iranian military in an honorary capacity, and was also a supervisor of Iran's sport's organizations. His recollections cover the length of the Pahlavi monarchy. They draw a sketch of Reza Shah's private life, and life in exile. The Prince's renditions also provide glimpses of various events during his brother's monarchy.
